County Special Education In Need Of Funds

Proposed Slash In Budget May Be Fatal

SPECIAL education programs in Monroe, Pike and Wayne schools is threatened with near-total destruction by a million and a half dollar budget cut in State funds, informed sources told The Daily Record last night.

According to the latest word from Harrisburg, legislators have failed to restore funds for special education to Governor Leader's budget. They have made a full $10 million slash in education funds and of that total $1½ million is taken from special education requirements.

If the cut stays intact, local communities throughout the State—such as Monroe—will be forced to curtail their special education programs by dismissing the trained men and women who are in charge.

In Monroe County two persons would be primarily affected by the loss of funds and the resultant cutback in employees. They would be John Abbruzzese, psychologist and Mrs. Marcia Bloss, speech therapist.

Special Class
Under Abbruzzese's guidance, Monroe County now has an additional special education class. Although the psychologist has been in Monroe only nine months (since last Oct. 1) he has succeeded in helping Hamilton Township School officials and county school officers John Lits and Walter H. Sebring set up a special education class for that school.

It was the first special education class formed in this county for a number of years, under county school auspices. A previous special education class, in East Stroudsburg's borough school system, had been in operation for some time. Two such classes in the Stroudsburg system do not come under county school jurisdiction.

Shortly after he came here, Abbruzzese began an exhaustive testing program which has been carried out in all county schools. It was the first broad, full-scale program of its kind ever carried out in the local schools.

Out of that testing program, Abbruzzese has come to a conclusion concerning the "approximate needs" of the districts for special education. It is still not complete, but current estimates show the following needs:

East Stroudsburg Area Joint Schools will need an estimated three more special education classes; Pocono Mountain Jointure also needs an estimated three classes and the West End (not including Hamilton) needs one special education class.

Most or all of these classes could have been formed and initiated as part of the school system during the nine months Abbruzzese has been here—except for the chronic overcrowding headache which plagues all local schools.

None of the schools has sufficient room to set aside for special classes. This lack of building space is the major hurdle to starting the programs, but some school boards are attempting to by-pass that issue by finding outside housing.

In all three major building programs now visualized by area schools, rooms for special education are an integral part of plans. "If space had been available we could have found the right teachers or trained teachers for special education classes," Abbruzzese said yesterday.

So far as local school officials and county school officers are concerned, there is little doubt that a full-time county psychologist is needed in Monroe.

But if State funds are slashed, county boards will be left with few alternatives: they must either abandon special education programs as they now exist in Monroe or they must find another way to finance the personnel cost.

Both Abbruzzese and Mrs. Bloss have made their imprints felt on education in Monroe since they've been here. Mrs. Bloss, for example, now has 307 children on her list for speech therapy or correction.

This is nearly double the number which is considered maximum for a speech therapist in a county of this size.

Colonel Angster Honored At Dinner

By Leonard Randolph
TOBYHANNA—There is a growing rumor abroad in the land that the United States Army is a "new" organization representing enlightened leadership and community relations.

If there is a new Army, then it is doubtful that it has, at the moment, a more accurate symbol than Col. Robert Charles Angster.

In his two years as commanding officer at Tobyhanna Signal Depot, Angster has turned what might have been a self-sufficient Army installation into a thriving, gregarious community with a staunch sense of civic responsibility toward Monroe County and the Pocono Mountains.

More than this he has made community service among Depot employees a matter of pride. Last night nearly 200 persons gathered in the huge Depot cafeteria to say, in varying words, these same things.

Jack Kerlin, vice president of the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce, was the first man to present this community's testimonial to the colonel. Kerlin read from a citation signed by Chamber president Walter S. Peeney which said:

"In gratitude to Colonel Robert C. Angster, Commanding Officer, Tobyhanna Signal Depot, Tobyhanna, Pa., this citation is presented by the Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce on behalf of all residents of Monroe County.

"Through the splendid execution of his duties as commanding officer of the Tobyhanna Signal Corps installation he has established and maintained a close, strong bond of community relations and civic responsibility in the Depot's personnel. Under his guidance Tobyhanna Signal Depot has become a major force for community progress in Monroe County.

"At no time has this been more clearly exemplified than during the disastrous hours of the flood which struck Monroe County in August, 1955. With all the facilities and manpower at his command, Col.

UNCOMMON COMMUNITY SPIRIT shown by Col. Robert Angster during his two years as Tobyhanna Depot commander brought honor to him last night. Among those at dinner for him were (seated) Jack Kerlin, Pocono Mountains Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Angster and Col. Angster, with photo presented as gift; Joseph Rice, Tobyhanna village; John Crandall, Top of Poconos; (standing) Gerald Possinger, Mount Pocono Burgess; Glenn Grubbs, toastmaster; Lt. Col. Bob Glover; James A. Somers, The Daily Record; and Berne Cramer, Mount Pocono Rotary.

Angster immediately organized a rescue operation and supply line which was directly responsible for saving the lives of hundreds of people in regions of Monroe, Wayne and Pike counties. The full cooperation and voluntary spirit which Col. Angster displayed in those perilous days formed a nucleus for the eventual recovery of this entire area.

"For this and for his lasting contributions to all other phases of community life in the Pocono Mountains, this citation is presented with humility and gratitude."

This was one of the most serious-minded moments in the program. There were other, similar citations from the Top of the Poconos Association, presented by John Crandall; from Mount Pocono Rotary Club, from the hands of Berne Cramer; from Tobyhanna's village council in the words of Joseph Rice; from Mount Pocono Burgess, Gerald Possinger.

Each of these echoed the same sentiments: That Col. Bob Angster had gone constantly out of his way to better relationships between the Depot and the communities which surround it.

Responding to each, Angster's voice grew gradually more and more husky. He had expected the "gag" gifts from Depot employees.

gon) presented three "money bags"—one marked "For Tobyhanna Depot," the second "For Lexington, Decatur and Sacramento" and the third "For All other Corps Installations."

Alvin McWilliams, assistant chief of the transportation division, handed Angster an elaborate scale model Jeep—a gag based on the colonel's fondness for his own radio-equipped vehicle. A pair of antlers—a joke based on Angster's unsuccessful deer-hunting days at Tobyhanna—was presented by George Hesse for the engineering staff. There was a "dollar chart" from Col. Benjamin Caston, chief of stock control. This "gag" hit close to a truth which has endeared Angster to all Depot employees.

Angster's basic philosophy has been that the Signal Depot "must get supplies to the men who need them as fast as it can—worry about the dollar tabulation later." It's made him unique in Signal Corps ranks in the past—but the pendulum has begun to swing his way.

Other gifts: a "swagger stick" presented by Fred Brownson, chief engineer; a large wooden key from the hands of Patsy Creco, storage department. Then came the gift that caused the most comment: A huge photo of Angster, his attractive blonde wife and their new daughter, Patricia Ann. It was presented by Theresa Puluka, Tobyhanna, head nurse, and it was a gift which obviously touched Angster deeply.

Crandall, speaking for Mount Pocono Rotary, also presented a gift certificate for Laurel from LaBar's Rhododendron Nursery which will be shipped to the Angsters at their new Falls Church, Va. home this Autumn, he said.

There were words of praise, too, from Angster's deputy, Lt. Col. Bob H. Glover. Willis Jones, Scranton Chamber of Commerce, after appearing to take credit for installation of the Depot at Tobyhanna, also praised Angster.

Shortway Lists Promotion Committee

A SHORTWAY Promotion Committee was appointed yesterday in a meeting of the Keystone Shortway Assn. at Williamsport.

Named to the committee were J. Horace Strunk, Stroudsburg; Paul Cerula, Hazleton; John R. Corbett, Williamsport; William Ulerich, Clearfield, and G. A. Harshman, Sharon.

One of the committee's first jobs will be to arrange a conference with Gov. George M. Leader, Secretary of Highways Joseph J. Lawler and Secretary of Commerce William R. Davin.

One purpose of the conference will be to offer the association's cooperation in planning the Shortway, a 291-mile superhighway that will be built across the state between Stroudsburg and Sharon.

Procedures
Procedures which the state will follow in contracting for the construction work will also be discussed so the committee can plan a celebration when the Highway Department breaks the first ground on the Shortway project.

The celebration will start simultaneously at each end of the state and work toward a central point, where it is hoped to have the mayors of Chicago and New York meet and shake hands.

The Shortway is the last remaining link on the shortest possible line between Chicago and New York; hence the idea was suggested yesterday to bring the two mayors together during the celebration. Other proposals will be studied by the committee at the direction of Z. H. Confair, Shortway president.

Bertram D. Tallamy, federal roads administration, announced approval of the Shortway on May 23. Construction of the four-lane, limited-access freeway had been recommended to the U. S. Bureau of Public Roads by Gov. Leader and Highway Secretary Lawler. The road will be built under the federal interstate program in which the state pays 10 per cent of the cost and the federal government provides the balance.

Newcomers In Graham's Audience

NEW YORK, June 12 (AP)—More than half of the thousands showing up tonight to hear Billy Graham are there for the first time—and a big batch of the newcomers tonight came all the way from Tennessee.

Repeatedly throughout the crusade those present in the audience for the first time have been asked to raise their hands. Officials say that consistently more than half are in this category.

A crowd of 17,000 was in Madison Square Garden tonight, bringing total attendance to 518,000. Of these, 16,877—362 of them tonight—have stepped forward at Graham's plea to "surrender your life to Christ."

Tanker Strikes Mine

PORT SAID, Egypt, June 12 (AP)—The big Liberian tanker World Jury, loaded with 30,000 tons of crude oil, struck a mine today just outside Suez.

Lung Growth Fatal To Jimmy Dorsey

NEW YORK, June 12 (AP)—Cancer killed bandleader Jimmy Dorsey today, less than seven months after the death of his brother, Tommy. Thus vanished from the American scene one of the great combinations of the jazz age.

Jimmy was 53. Tommy 51 when he accidentally choked to death in his sleep last Nov. 26 at his Connecticut home.

The brothers came out of the Pennsylvania coal fields in the 1920s to let American feet tapping to the sentimental beat of their music. Jimmy played the clarinet, Tommy the trombone.

They broke up their band and went their separate ways in 1935 after a heated dispute over artistic style. It wasn't until 18 years later that they were reunited on the same bandstand.

"Jimmy was never the same after Tommy died," said Lee Castle, a lifetime associate who now leads the Dorsey band. "He really was broken-hearted. He didn't talk about anything else."

Jimmy was operated on last January for a lung growth. He rejoined the band and took it on tour but was forced to leave it in March and enter Doctors Hospital. Recently, he had failed rapidly.

The Dorsey band currently is at the Statler Hotel here. Castle said it will continue as usual.

The Dorseys reached a peak of their career in the year preceding Tommy's death. For the 1955-56 television season, they shared Jackie Gleason's Saturday night TV show.

Tommy, who billed himself as "The Sentimental Gentleman of Swing," was tall, rather spare, hot-tempered and with ready fists. Jimmy was shorter, dapperly round, a quiet stylist who long was king of America's juke boxes.

Young Miner Found Dead

SHAMOKIN, June 12 (AP)—Frank Pufnock, 19-year-old miner trapped 36 hours in a coal mine cave-in, was found dead by a search crew tonight.

State police said a doctor pronounced Pufnock dead shortly before 9 p.m.

Replacement Announced For Angster

ANNOUNCEMENT was made yesterday in Washington, D.C., that Col. Clifford A. Poutre will succeed Col. Robert Angster as commanding officer of Tobyhanna Signal Depot.

Col. Angster leaves the depot tomorrow to be stationed in the office of the Chief Signal Officer in the Pentagon.

Col. Poutre (the second syllable is pronounced "tray") has been deputy commanding officer of the U. S. Signal Supply Agency in Philadelphia. He will assume command at Tobyhanna on July 1. Until then Lt. Col. Bob H. Glover, Col. Angster's deputy, will be acting commander.

Long Service
Col. Poutre was born in Hudson Falls, N.Y., on Oct. 24, 1904. He entered the Army in January, 1929 and was commissioned in 1941. He was graduated from the Command and General Staff School in 1944; assigned commanding officer, Eighth Army Signal Depot from 1946-48; instructor in the Signal School, 1948-50.

He was graduated from the Industrial College Armed Forces in 1951 and was assigned chief in the office of electronics program, Munitions Board from 1951-53. Col. Poutre was deputy of industrial mobilization in the Signal Corps Supply Agency from 1953-54 and deputy commanding officer of the agency since 1954.

Col. and Mrs. Poutre are now living in Ardmore, Pa.

France Names New Premier

PARIS, Thursday, June 13 (AP)—Maurice Bourgès-Maunoury, 42-year-old middle-roader, early today won office as the nation's youngest premier since 1883. The French National Assembly gave him a 240-194 vote of confidence.

The youthful Radical-Socialist, who served 16 months as defense minister in the preceding Cabinet, brought along into power a team of younger men, including 37-year-old Felix Gaillard as finance minister.

Planning Consultant Area Commission Of Details

A HARRISBURG PLANNING consultant last night informed the Monroe County Planning Commission it would cost about $12,000 annually—for at least the first two years of operation—to set up an adequate planning program for the county.

Clifton E. Rodgers agreed to submit a written proposal after meeting with the county planning group and members of the Monroe County Board of Commissioners.

Commission Chairman George T. Robinson made it clear that Rodgers appeared at the meeting purely as a good-will gesture, aware that the commission had no funds for planning purposes and that no money had been allocated in the 1957 county budget for such a project.

Indication
Rodgers indicated that after the initial program was set up, it was possible the annual cost would be reduced. He also noted that Federal aid is available for such purposes through the Housing and Home Finance Agency on a 50-50 basis.

The planning consultant explained that any adequate program would investigate population trends, distribution, movements, composition and community characteristics.

An economic study would also be made, he said. This would deal with industry, commerce, agriculture and other components of the local economy, including basic and secondary employment factors.

Natural resources, topography and physiography would also be studied, Rodgers pointed out. Other factors would include existing land utilization, and transportation facilities and traffic flow.

Mayflower Reaches Goal

PROVINCETOWN, Mass., June 12 (AP)—Robust Cmdr. Alan Villers, who has spent most of his 54 years on the wind's highway, brought Mayflower II to port today after sailing the replica of the historic Pilgrim bark over 5,000 miles of the western ocean in 53 days.

Urgency forced him to take a tow line for the last short leg of the voyage and the soul of the famed master of windjammers must have been sorely tried.

Tonight Mayflower swung to a mooring buoy in Provincetown Harbor, where the original rested after her long and wearing voyage of 66 days back in 1620.

Controller Testifies On Firm's Work

HARRISBURG, June 12 (AP)—The controller of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission testified in court today that a Reading firm was paid for work never done.

Franklin V. Summers told the court payments amounting to more than $1½ million dollars were made by the commission to the Manu-Mine Research and Development Co., in 1955.

"The Manu-Mine bill of figures for drilling are in excess of amounts measured by our own engineer," Summers said.

The testimony was given in the trial of nine men—including former and suspended turnpike officials—on charges of conspiring to defraud the commission of 19½ million dollars.

Summers read several lists of bills submitted periodically by Manu-Mine for mine void filling. It reported done on the Northeastern Extension of the toll road.

CIO Ready To Negotiate

FOREST PARK—New Jersey State CIO Council President Paul Krebs said today the CIO is ready to resume negotiations with the state AFL as soon as possible in an effort to merge the two organizations.

"It is our sincere desire to meet as often and as long as necessary to effectuate a merger of the labor movement in New Jersey that will truly represent the best interests of all workers and all citizens in our state," Krebs said.

BIDS ARE TALLIED for construction of 100 public housing units in Monroe County. The bids were opened yesterday in the courthouse in Stroudsburg by the Monroe County Housing Authority and representatives of the Washington Regional Office of the Public Housing Administration. Paul Edinger, Stroudsburg contractor, submitted the apparent low bid for the general contract. Three more pictures are on Page Five.

Paul Edinger Apparently Wins Contract

By Paul Carlson
LOW BIDS for the construction of 100 public housing units in Monroe County total $1,051,751, the Monroe County Housing Authority announced last night.

Paul Edinger, 1306 Spruce St., Stroudsburg, submitted the apparent low bid of $781,444 for the general construction contract when bids were opened by the authority yesterday.

Other apparent low bidders follow: Heating, C. H. Sherry, Hazleton, $49,157; plumbing, H. C. Archibald, 406 Main St., Stroudsburg, $189,000; electric, Allied Crafts Co., Lehighton, $29,150.

In addition to these items, equipment will have to be purchased, and the three housing sites will have to be landscaped. Rev. Roger C. Stimson, authority chairman, pointed out.

Unopened
Harry Taylor, authority director, reported that one bid for landscaping was received from Henkels and McCoy, Philadelphia. However, it will be returned unopened because Federal Public Housing regulations insist on more than one bid being received before a contract is awarded.

Taylor said that the authority okayed the apparent low bids, subject to the approval of the Washington Regional Office of the Public Housing Administration.

He expressed the hope that contracts will be signed within two weeks and that work can begin within 30 days.

Forty percent of the work must be completed within 220 working days after the contracts are awarded, he said, and the whole project must be finished within a calendar year.

Taylor said four bids were received for the general construction contract, four for heating, three for plumbing, and eight for the electrical work.

The bids will be studied by FHA officials before the contracts are awarded.

Monroe County will be the first area in the country to build duplex subsidized housing units. Mr. Stimson explained that the Government wants such housing developments to conform to the needs of the community where they are being built.

Forty-four units will be erected in East Stroudsburg, while 28 will be built in both Stroudsburg and Stroud Township.

In addition to Stimson and Taylor, authority members present when the bids were opened follow: Charles Bensinger, Jr., Marshall Reese, Melvin Weiss, Sr., and Ernest H. Staples. Others present were architects Harold Rinker and Murrel Keifer, Solicitor James Kitson, and Archie P. Burgess and Elwood Fisher, of the PHA's Washington office.

Stroudsburg Residents Ordered To Cut Consumption Of Water

STROUDSBURG Municipal Authority yesterday issued an order prohibiting the use of water hose for any purpose until further notice.

William Curnow, manager of the water department, said the authority is pumping a half million gallons of water more than a year ago at the same time and still is unable to keep up with the heavy demand.

Water is going over the spillway at Stokes Mill dam, Curnow reported, but present pumping facilities are considered inadequate to meet the demand resulting from the long dry spell that has followed the heavy rains early this Spring.

Pumps at Brown's spring are used to transfer water into the Flagler's reservoir, and those at Stokes Mill spring pump water into the Fifth St. reservoir. Despite the adequate supply of water, the manager said, the demand has mounted beyond the ability of the pumps to deliver a sufficient supply to the reservoirs.

Curnow pointed out the authority added 100 customers in 1956 and is adding customers at the rate of 10 a month this year.

The authority has received an engineering report covering expansion and improvements to the water system entailing an expenditure of around $700,000. Council and the authority are scheduled to meet in joint session next Wednesday to consider the report.

Lawn and garden sprinkling, car washing, and other similar practices in which hose is used are prohibited under yesterday's order. All customers of the Stroudsburg Municipal Authority, including those living outside the borough, are affected.

New Appeals Made For Funds

HARRISBURG, June 12 (AP)—New appeals were sounded today to have Senate Republicans restore funds cut by the GOP-controlled House from Gov. Leader's budget for the State Health Department and the Pennsylvania Fair Employment Practices Commission.

Harry Boyer, commission chairman, said a budget reduction from $371,000 to $225,000 would "seriously cripple" FEPC operations. He appealed in a letter to senators to have the money restored.

... Chevrolet with Turboglide!

Chevy's come up with the newest, sweetest, smoothest automatic drive—Turboglide. It's the first and only triple-turbine transmission!

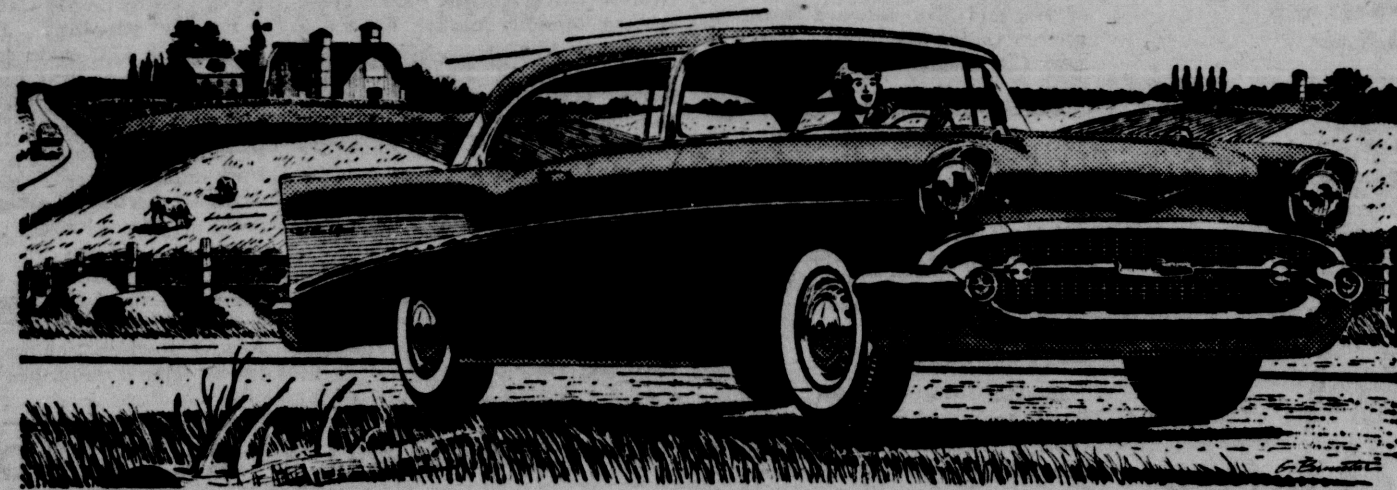

Turboglide is something really new and different in automatic drives. In the first place, there's only one forward-speed position on the control panel. There's no "Low" needed.

Turboglide handles everything with the oil-smooth action of triple turbines. You travel from a standstill to top cruising speeds with never a lurch or lag to mar your motion.

When you see a steep downhill stretch ahead, you set the selector at "GR" (Grade Retarder) and Turboglide helps slow you down. Try Chevy's new, nothing-like-it automatic drive. It's optional at extra cost—and worth it.

Leader Vetoes Boost In Per Capita Tax

As an opponent of the flat tax, it is not surprising to learn that Gov. George M. Leader has vetoed legislation to allow school districts to double their per capita taxes from $5 to $10.

The Governor has consistently contended any flat tax assessment is "regressive," or backward, since it hits all income classes with the same force. He is a proponent of graduated taxes, but these are outlawed by Pennsylvania's Constitution.

Mr. Leader said he recognizes the pressure "which rising school costs place on local school tax sources, but I believe it is inequitable and unwise to increase the permissible ceiling on a regressive tax source while retaining present limitations on more equitable existing revenue sources."

School districts which had counted on a per capita tax boost to solve some of their financial problems must now look elsewhere for additional revenue.

Several avenues are left open to them. One of them, of course, is to cut back on fringe expenses, as some districts already have done. Many school directors insist this is not as easy as it sounds, but it's a method that never should be abandoned—for the benefit of the hard-pressed taxpayer.

School districts, like those in Monroe, can continue pressing for equalized tax assessments on a county-wide basis. They should enlist the backing of other taxing bodies in expediting the program. Not until all property owners are required to pay a fair share of the tax load can school boards—and other political subdivisions—hope to bring order out of the present chaotic system of taxation.

What effect amending of the state school subsidy bill as proposed in the Legislature would have on school district financing is not yet certain.

The large cities contend the proposal would revise the state aid formula to favor smaller and so-called "poorer" school districts at the expense of the bigger ones. School boards would do well not to count on any help from this measure until such time as it is passed and signed into law.

Social Security Program Uses Tax Money

When people ask—as they are doing increasingly—why taxes are climbing so rapidly, they often overlook one major explanation. They fail to consider Social Security.

The Federal Government has assumed an enormous liability for the payment of various Social Security benefits. Indeed, such benefits are the foundation of what we call the "welfare state" and are widely approved.

In this connection, a life insurance expert says Social Security commitments have become so great that "if the plan were liquidated, the liabilities existing under it would be 250 billion dollars more than is now in the fund."

It has been said that Social Security taxes will rise to a total of eight percent of wages and salaries up to $1,200 by 1975. Ultimately, the percentage may even go higher.

We must remember that all the money thus far collected has been spent by the government. Bonds have been issued to cover it. But to secure cash for these bonds when they mature, taxes will have to be collected.

We aren't getting something for nothing, no matter how attractive the picture looks.

George Sokolsky Says...

Events Will Bring Out Anderson's Views On Budget, Tax Cuts And Corporate Levies

The new Secretary of the Treasury, Robert B. Anderson, will take that position after resigning from Ventures Limited, a Canadian company, of which he has been president. This is a vast holding company, with tangible net worth of about $22,000,000 and which either owns or has a huge interest in a large number of other companies throughout the world.

Canada does not object to the cartel system of operations and it would be a question of legal definition rather than private opinion whether many of Canada's industries have been cartelized. There seems to be no objection to the cartel in capitalistic countries other than the United States.

At any rate Ventures Limited is acknowledged to be one of the largest holding companies in the mining field. Its income derives from dividends paid by various companies in which it has made its investments.

Ventures Limited was chartered on January 27, 1938, with an original authorized capital of $10,000,000. The genius of the enterprise has undoubtedly been T. Lindley, the chairman of its board of directors, who was born in the United States. He went to Canada in 1937 as a geologist, and became interested in various mining properties which eventually became Ventures Limited. The indicated market value of the stock ownership in subsidiary and related companies of Ventures Limited is about $112,000,000.

In 1954, the various oil interests of Ventures Limited and Frohisher Limited, a subsidiary, were consolidated into Geol Limited, a subsidiary of Frohisher Limited. (The use of numerous subsidiaries, piling tier upon tier, has become customary in all countries to influence tax payments.) Ventures Limited owns about 1,356,000 shares in Geol Limited of which R. B. Anderson was a director. These interlocking directorates would indicate that these companies are all controlled by more or less the same interests, brought together by T. Lindley, chairman of Ventures Limited. Geol Limited operates not only in Canada but also in the United States, particularly in Louisiana, where it has substantial oil interests.

Ventures Limited, which is the controlling shareholder of Frohisher Limited and Geol Limited, operates through its subsidiaries and related companies in Canada, Africa, South America and the United States. Geol, for instance, has a 50 per cent interest in Trans Border Limited which owns the Williston Oil and Gas Limited which operates in the United States with great success.

It is interesting that this enormous Canadian enterprise found an American to be its president and that he replaces as Secretary of the Treasury. George Humphrey whose Mark Hanna Co. also holds enormous mine properties in Canada. The economic relations between the two countries are important and perhaps interlocking to a greater degree than is generally assumed.

Many financial companies and financial devices exist which bring the business of the two countries together. Furthermore, many Canadian enterprises are financed in London, and Canada may serve as a bridge between the London and New York market, providing financial organizations which facilitate investment but which are now forbidden in this country.

The Toronto stock exchange, for instance, is a much freer institution than the New York stock exchange. Current studies of the invasion of Canadian capital into the United States would indicate that they are larger than has generally been assumed.

There has been so much mystery about the new Secretary of the Treasury that I thought that I might as well research Ventures Limited and introduce the gentleman properly to the taxpayer. A quiet businessman, working in Toronto since he ceased to be deputy secretary of defense, he has not been as well known to the American people as a successor to Alexander Hamilton should be. His first political appointment was Secretary of the Navy, in the Eisenhower Administration, although he is a Democrat. His views on various subjects are not known at all.

For instance what are his views on the budget, tax-cuts, the evasion of taxes by corporations by means of tier subsidiaries scattered all over the world, etc., etc.? Anderson has not had anything to say on these matters at all and therefore he cannot be unpopular because no one knows what he is for or against. However, it is to be presumed that he cannot be too antagonistic to George Humphrey's position because no big businessman could be, and in due course, events will require statements on various subjects.

times, but nobody should say this out of one side of the mouth and declare "The car you buy may win the Daytona Beach races," out of the other.

7.—The American auto industry gives you luxury, relaxation, wonderful transportation and a brighter existence. To make you a bad insurance risk has no part in its program.

8.—Its engineers are responsible, intelligent experts dedicated to turning out a better auto, not a better moon-rocker.

9.—Its cars are the wonder of the world and can be sold without glorification of high speed. In its pledge to the public the industry puts the same honesty and sturdiness it puts into its automobiles.

Summer Jobs Aid Youth In Selecting A Career

By Anne Heywood

Many people put little thought into choosing their life work. They fall into a job right after school, because it's near their home, or their best friend works there. Then, at middle age, they find they're bored, but by that time, they've spent so many years in the wrong job, it's difficult to change.

The answer, obviously, is to put a little more attention and effort into choosing the right one in the first place.

That's where summer jobs can be such a wonderful help. The young person who takes summer jobs through high school and college, has a chance to see what the business world has to offer, to select his field carefully and avoid a lot of unhappiness later on.

Don't Repeat First, decide not to repeat a summer job. Too many youngsters will get a good summer job the first year, and go back to it year after year.

A wiser move is to try a different one each summer. In this way you can try on a few, so to speak, and see which suits you best. Work in one kind of job this year, and next year in a very different kind. And watch your reaction. Does the job really interest you enough to read up on it and maybe specialize in it? Or is this field a real bore, just a place for earning money?

You can learn a lot about yourself, your interests and capabilities, if you'll watch your feelings about your summer jobs.

Interview People Second, do a thorough job-hunting campaign on your summer job. It's a good time to have interviews with many people and to learn all you can about the business of interviewing.

If you've always thought commercial photography would be interesting, write to your town's leading commercial photographers and have an interview.

Maybe they don't need summer help and maybe they do, but the mere process of having an interview will be educational. You'll be able to see if it really does seem as interesting from the inside as it looked from the outside.

Robert S. Allen Reports

Pentagon To List Names Of 450 'Lost In Action'

Washington, June 12—A new chapter is about to be added to one of the saddest aftermaths of the Korean war—the fate of 450 Americans still listed as "missing in action."

The names of these mysterious, shrouded servicemen are finally going to be made public by the Defense Department.

That will be done as part of a new effort, at the protracted Geneva negotiations with the Chinese Communists, to induce them to reveal what they know about these 244 Army, 190 Air Force, 13 Marine Corps, and 3 Navy officers and enlisted men.

Some of them are believed to be alive and held in Red prisons.

Peiping has persistently denied that, and flatly balked at disclosing anything regarding these vanished servicemen—including even the fact they have been missing for five or more years.

After their names are published, Ambassador U. Alexis Johnson will again demand a report on them from Red Chinese representatives in Geneva.

Their next meeting is scheduled for July 11.

It will be their 68th session, since these discussions began in August 1953, following the Big Four "Summit conference." These meetings are highly secret, and virtually nothing has been revealed about them by either side.

The July 11 date of the next session is known only because it came to light during questioning of Johnson by a House Foreign Affairs Subcommittee, while he was in Washington for consultations at the State Department. This Subcommittee has been quietly examining the handling of this long-standing American tragedy.

Head of the Subcommittee is Rep. Clement Zablocki (D., Wis.), who announced his candidacy for the seat of the late Senator Joe McCarthy. Release of Americans in Chinese hands was a frequent topic of McCarthy.

The forthcoming publication of the names of the 450 missing servicemen is due directly to this Subcommittee.

Officials of the Defense and State Departments reluctantly agreed to do that after a series of private grillings, chiefly by Zablocki and Representative Frank Coffin (D., Me.). Zablocki and Representative Thomas Lane (D., Mass.) are sponsoring a Resolution that would direct President Eisenhower to make the return of U. S. prisoners of war a major aspect of foreign policy.

Johnson's Story—Ambassador Johnson gave the Subcommittee a grim picture of the endless frustrations and difficulties he has encountered in his two years of negotiating with the Red Chinese.

The bleak account was the first the career diplomat has ever given a congressional committee of his trying Geneva mission.

Accompanying him at this significant hearing were Assistant Secretary of State Walter Robertson, for Far Eastern Affairs, and Deputy Assistant Defense Secretary Stephen Jackson. Following are published highlights of their revealing testimony, as recorded in the transcript of this meeting: While gravely cautioning against raising false hopes, Secretary Jackson told of three instances of "missing prisoners who may be alive." As related to the Subcommittee they are:

An Air Force major shot down on September 9, 1950, while piloting a B-29. He is known to have been taken prisoner and held for a time in a North Korean camp. Later a Russian picture agency released a photo of the major, with a caption that he was a POW. But at Geneva, the Red Chinese have persistently denied knowing anything about him.

An Army captain shot down in October 1952, while piloting a liaison plane. Repeated American POW reports said he lost a leg in the crash, and the other one was amputated by his captors. In response to repeated inquiries at Geneva, the Red Chinese finally claimed the bilateral leg amputee "had escaped" and they knew nothing of his fate.

An Army private, captured by the Communists in August 1950, was later mentioned in one of their propaganda broadcasts to mothers of the U. S. POW. The Red broadcast gave the names and addresses of this soldier's mother. But at Geneva, the Chinese denied having any information about him.

A dramatic incident occurred in the committee room when Jackson reported the Communists' claim that the double-leg amputee Army captain had escaped.

"That must be my son," exclaimed Harry D. Moreland, Tulsa, Okla., attorney, who had been invited by Chairman Zablocki to attend the meeting. "This is the first word I have gotten that he escaped. Defense officials have always told me no information had ever been given them by the Communists about my son. But now Mr. Jackson says the Chinese Reds did report he escaped."

The Subcommittee directed Jackson to provide it with a full report on this case. Moreland was assured that information would be made available to him.

Ambassador Johnson stated the Chinese give one of two answers to his repeated inquiries about the missing Americans: (1) That none of them are in Chinese hands, and (2) their cases should be taken up with the Korean Armistice Commission.

"Have you asked the Communists," said Zablocki, "whether they have transferred or moved any of our prisoners?"

"I have, many times," replied Johnson. "When I point out an instance where they broadcast a message stating they held one of these missing men, I invariably get the answer this is a matter for the Korean Armistice Commission to handle."

"It is my understanding," continued Zablocki, "that the British have advised the State Department that some American POW were moved from China to North Korea."

"We have no information like that," broke in Assistant Secretary Robertson. "Neither the British nor anyone else has reported that to us."

Celebrities Make Mark In Poconos

By Jim Riley

Celebrities were almost as plentiful in Monroe County on Tuesday as we common folks.

At Shawnee Inn and Country Club, where Fred Waring tossed another of his famed Song Pluggers outings, names were a dime-a-dozen.

Up Mountainhome way, those dining at Landi's Restaurant were fortunate enough to see Lucille Ball, the famed actress, and Jane Keene, of the comedy team, who were both eating of the highly regarded food.

We missed the Mountainhome attraction, but did catch our weak old eyes on plenty of "names" at Shawnee.

Not only were the men with the names present, but they were having a great time. They were letting their hair down and fun was the order of the day.

The golfer with the "retired businessman's look" was actually the retired orchestra leader Glen Gray, who once led his Casa Loma group to international fame. The arrival of the Mayflower II was Glen's chief concern, as he is now a resident of Plymouth, Mass.

Another band leader present was Mitchell Ayers, the man who murders a golf ball and rates among the best in the music business. His stories were terrific and he appeared to have one ready for everyone in the huge crowd. Carmen Cavallaro, who rates high on everyone's music list, was on hand, as was host Fred Waring.

Dee Bellini, the gentleman playing in the same foursome with Ayers was actually Perry Como's brother-in-law, and is considered by many as the "brains" behind the famed Saturday night television show.

Since Como is off TV for the Summer, Ayers will do a 13-week show with Julius LaRosa, who was also a prominent member of the field on Tuesday. Como, who was unable to attend Tuesday's event, returns to the airways in September.

Perry, who is extremely popular at Shawnee, among caddies, employees and guests, was conspicuous by his absence. But, as it was pointed out, Perry puts his family before anything else in this world and Tuesday was Mrs. Como's birthday.

Bill Gaxton, the retired comedian, directed things from the porch and continually supplied instruction for Harry Obitz and his fine staff, much to the laughing enjoyment of those present.

Jill Shawnee's tame deer, took in the festivities with great calm, even though she is under the care of a veterinarian.

Jackie Gleason's quick quips and a truly rib tickling performance by Bernie Pollock topped off a great day.

Ed Sullivan certainly drew his share of notice as did Nick Kenny. It was a great day and the weatherman presented a star performance and attracted rave notice from the show folks.

Stroud Union School Directors Decide To Borrow $55,000 While Awaiting State Funds

STROUD UNION School directors voted last night to borrow $55,000 while they're waiting for payment of State appropriations.

It was just like old times. In recent school years the board—and all other Monroe County school boards—spent half of their time in hock up to their ears as State appropriations were delayed time and again.

In an official action, board members gave their unanimous approval to a motion authorizing board officials to negotiate the temporary loan "in anticipation" of State aid.

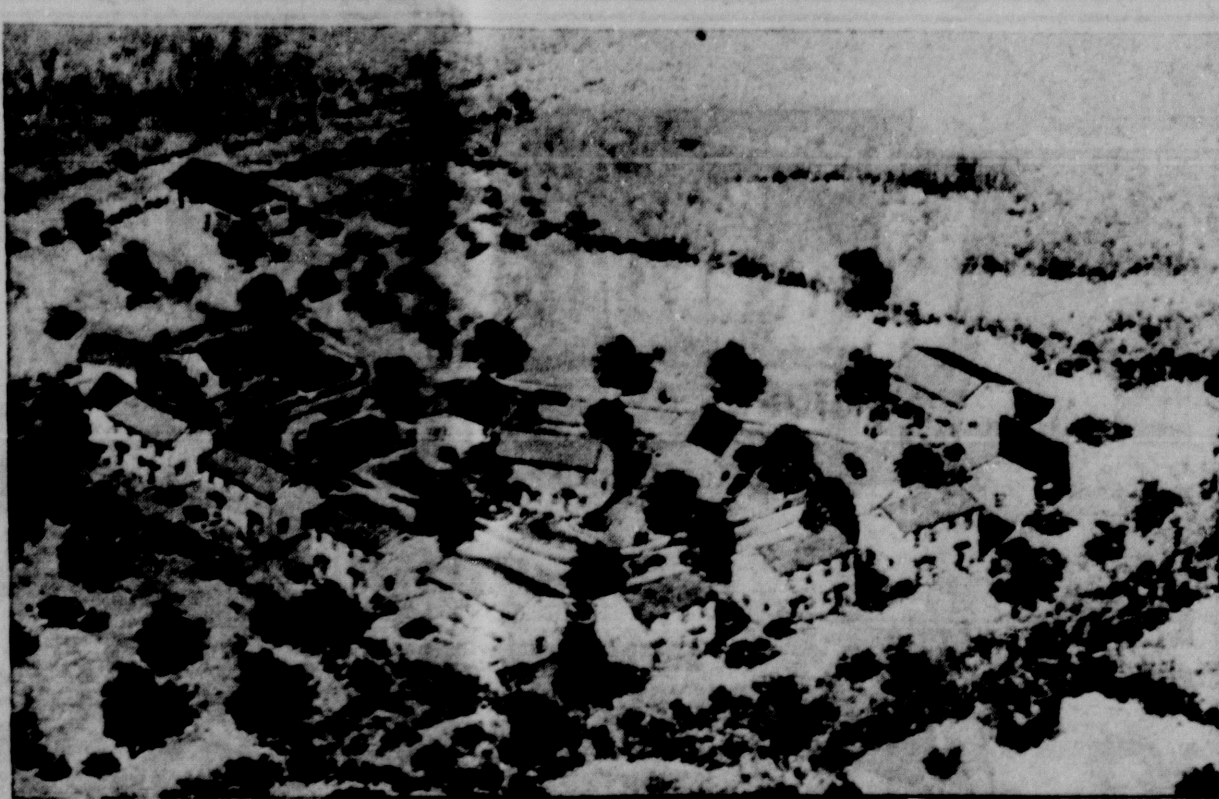

In a series of other decisions the board:

Authorized its secretary, Herbert Crane, to advertise for bids in these construction projects: Replacement of all water pipes in the Ramsey Elementary School building; replacement of the heating plant in the Morey Elementary School building; construction of one room in the basement of the Ramsey School and another in the high school basement.

Accepted the resignation of three teachers in the school system: Florence Carson, Mrs. Emma Strunk and Margaret Roscher.

Employed Mrs. M. y Kunkle as assistant to librarian Janet Bender at an annual salary of $4,700 per year. Hired Mrs. Mildred Allen as a commercial teacher at a salary of $4,500 annually. Mrs. Allen had been chief clerk in the superintendent's office. Mrs. Doris Chaplin, now her assistant, was hired at $3,200 per year as chief clerk replacing Mrs. Allen.

Heard a report that the board must again petition Monroe County Court of Common Pleas for appointment of auditors for the school system. Auditors named by the court last year were named for one year only.

TWENTY-EIGHT UNITS also will be constructed by the Monroe County Housing Authority off N. Fifth St. in Stroud Township. Actual construction is expected to begin within a month. Bids were opened yesterday.

RINKER AND KIEFER designed these 100 duplex units which are going to be built in Monroe County, the first community in the U. S. to erect this type of public housing. Here are models of the 28 Stroudsburg units to be built off W. Main St.

Lutherans To Meet At Shawnee Camp

SEVERAL hundred Lutheran laymen and members of church councils will meet at the Ministerium Camp above Shawnee next Saturday and Sunday for a retreat. The first meetings will be held on Saturday afternoon at which time the President of the Ministerium of Pennsylvania, Rev. Dr. C. M. Copper, will address the group. There will be other prominent pastors and laymen who will participate.

Rev. Asa S. Wohlson, son of Dr. and Mrs. Peter Wohlson, will serve as chaplain and will conduct a vespers service on Saturday night and the chief service on Sunday morning. He will also present the messages for the meeting at these services. The sessions will conclude on Sunday afternoon.

Funeral Notices

WERLEY, Mrs. Alma M., of Kresgeville, on June 12, aged 70 years. Relatives and friends are respectfully invited to attend funeral services Saturday, June 15, at 2 p. m. from the Kresge funeral home. Col. Angster Honored At Signal Depot Testimonial

(Continued from Page 1) field of community relations that Angster's two-year service at the Depot seemed most deeply imbedded. And it was to this that he addressed himself in his return thanks:

"If anything has been accomplished during my term here, I hope it is a closer understanding of the communities from which we have drawn our employees. Promoting it was certainly one of my aims. I hope the people here at the Depot are closer together—that they see each other's point of view better.

"Thank you all for the kindness you've shown me this evening. But more than this—thank you for the kindness you've shown me all through my tour of duty at this Depot." Most of the people in the room had personal reasons for being there. At the head table the men had served on organizations with Angster as a member of their directorship. In the audience were the men and women who had worked under his command.

They know, one speaker said, that "Bob Angster wanted the best job you could give and he was sometimes hard to satisfy—but when you did a good job he always let you know he appreciated it and he was never afraid to praise a man who had done excellent work."

Local Eagles To Attend Convention

THE ANNUAL convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles will be held in Pittsburgh this weekend, beginning tomorrow and terminating with a big affair on Sunday. State Chaplain Ernie Ridgeway departs today for the site, while Less Voss, Truman Burnett, and Granville Shiffer will leave for the coal city tomorrow.

Superior Court Affirms Award

PENNSYLVANIA'S Superior Court, in upholding Monroe County Justice Fred Davis, affirmed the compensation award to Albert A. Gower.

Gower, an employee of the Mackes Lumber Company, was injured during his employment, suffering damage to his right knee. Compensated and returned to work soon thereafter, he suffered a recurrence of the injury, and the tenderness which accompanied it caused him to fall off his porch when he accidentally banged into a door. The fall fractured his hip.

Established. The workman's compensation board held that sufficient causal connection had been established, and it was affirmed both by the Monroe County Court of Common Pleas and the Superior Court. The case was Gower v. Mackes et al. In the same session, Judge Davis was sustained in a Pittsburgh decision, Court of Quarter Sessions of Allegheny County, Commonwealth v. Davis, where he ruled that a dope addict's testimony was sufficient upon which to base a conviction of a dope "pusher."

Now is the time to erect an enduring Memorial, an appropriate expression of love and respect to those near and dear.

PERSONNEL CARRIERS such as the one shown were built by Mid Empire Corp. for use in industrial plants. Production of the electric cars will be transferred to Worthington Mower plant here in mid-July.

THE WORTHINGTON CHAMP is well suited to transport packages quickly and easily at low cost. It is being used in hotels, hospitals, factories, warehouses, stores, airports, railroad and bus stations.

Worthington Mower To Build New Line Of Golf Vehicles

(Continued from Page 5) a much broader application on which Worthington hopes to capitalize, Sanborn said. It can be used as a utility car, a personnel carrier, for transportation of handicapped people, small package delivery, short shopping trips, recreation and other uses where easy, safe transportation is needed. Sanborn said Worthington, for two years has engaged in research and development work on electric cars. Acquisition of Mid Empire, he observed, will give the company a chance to get into the field with a product by four years of testing.

Option
He further explained that Worthington has taken an option on the purchase of a firm on the Pacific Coast which makes one-passenger electric cars. One of these models is now being tested in Stroudsburg in the policing of parking meters. Sanborn said that by diversifying its line of products, Worthington has been able to give year-around employment to its workers. This is in contrast to a number of years ago when production of grass-cutting equipment for country clubs occupied the plant's entire attention—but only for a limited period each year.

Since then, he said, the field has been expanded to build mowers for college and school campuses, parks, airports, flood dikes and the like. Within the last few years, Worthington has been building a tractor with mower attachments. Its low center of gravity makes this machine a favorite for mowing shoulders and embankments along highways and turnpikes and for other grassy areas where the terrain is irregular.

The Champ, said Sanborn, has a welded steel body and frame, internal expansion brakes on both rear wheels, wide four-ply heavy-duty tires, dual wheel drive, differential type rear axle, ball bearing steering tiller, foam rubber seat, 24-volt motor and weighs 130 pounds. It is designed to go 36 holes without recharging storage batteries. The Champ has three speeds forward and one reverse.

Rev. Foose Makes Report To Home

REV. WILLIAM E. Foose, former pastor of the Tannersville Evangelical and Reformed Church, made his first semi-annual report to the trustees of Phoebe Home in Allentown yesterday. Mr. Foose, who only recently became superintendent of the denomination's home for aged, made his report just prior to the annual open house exercises of the institution.

Since taking over the post, Mr. Foose has attended all synodical meetings in an effort to inform members of the denomination of work being done at the home. The open house program included a barbeque, various special talks, and a family-style turkey dinner, at which some 700 to 900 persons were served by members of the home's women's auxiliary.

Dr. Allen S. Mock, president of Lancaster Theological Seminary and well-known speaker in the Poconos, delivered an address in the afternoon. At 6:30 p.m., Dr. Henry A. W. Schaeffer, pastor of Bethlehem's Bethany E-R Church, conducted a vesper service.

Two Students Honored By Kiwanis Club

DR. W. R. ERICKSON spoke on "Gems and Lapidary as a Hobby" yesterday noon at the Stroudsburg Kiwanis Club meeting in the Penn-Stroud Hotel.

His talk followed the presentation of citations and cash awards to two recent graduates of local high schools—Frank Radler Jr., Stroud Union, and John Burrows, East Stroudsburg.

Alfred Munson, Stroud Union High School principal, presented the citation to Radler in the presence of the latter's father, Frank Radler, and Ralph Burrows, East Stroudsburg High School principal, made the presentation to John Burrows, whose parents, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Burrows, also attended the meeting.

Cash Awards
The cash awards were presented by Elwood Hintze, club president, on behalf of Kiwanis. Known as the five-point award, it is given on the basis of mental strength, spiritual vision, civic responsibility, moral courage and social poise.

Hintze and Rev. Roger C. Stimson, vice president, are the official delegates to the Kiwanis International convention to be held June 23-27 in Atlantic City. Alan Keiper and John Watt are the alternates.

Robert O. Schell was program chairman yesterday. Dr. Erickson reviewed the history of gems to the early Aborigines some 5,000 years ago. He also explained the procedure for cutting gems from rough stones and displayed stones he had collected and some he had cut while pursuing his hobby.

Scouts Arrive In Canada Tired And 'All Shook Up'

(Special to The Daily Record from the Senior Scout trip to Canada, written June 8, by Eloise Cohen).

Because the smell of worms had left the bus, we enjoyed the ride before breakfast more than we had anticipated. After traveling for a half hour, we had breakfast at Portland, Maine, at 6:40.

Unfortunately, since it was so early, we could only find one place to eat. It was a jip joint. We were charged 60c for the ice cream on cereal that a few brave girls tried. Just goes to show, how much home cooking pays off.

After driving for a few hours, we stopped at L. L. Bean's Sporting goods store and bought some fishing equipment, etc. Fortunately, we succeeded in stopping Mrs. Wakefield from buying dried eggs. Papa bought some well-appreciated oranges which we devoured quickly.

At Rockport, Maine, we stopped and took some pictures of the ocean. Papa tried to get us a ride on a yacht but found it cost $75 a day per person. As they say in Stroudsburg High, "that's the way the cookie crumbles."

It was at this point that Mrs. Wakefield got the raspberries.

At 2:00 p. m. a crisis occurred. We lost the beads the girls use, to tell the driver that they want to stop. However, as true Girl Scouts, we were resourceful.

When an emergency came up, we yelled together, "Where's the beads?" They got the point.

At 5:15 we arrived at our destination, Canada. As a word of welcome (?) the customs men made us register cameras, fishing poles, prove our identification, and state where we were born. We were overjoyed that we got there, though, because about 63 miles back we had ridden on an extremely bumpy road which shook us up, as the record says. In Canada, we discovered to our happiness, that they had much smoother roads. Where is the taxpayer's money going?

At Fredrickton, New Brunswick, we ate dinner at a very good Oriental place, the Sun Grill and there we saw our first Canadians at close range. We decided the native were restless to night when we saw some kids having a dance out in a parking lot.

At 9:45 we got on Route 8 to Boise Town and soon after to the Griff Inn, our destination.

After traveling so long in the night, we were glad to come to the artists' cabin, the girls' lodging.

THE Wyckoff SHOPPER

If Shorty Widmer hadn't been away last week, I'd have been tempted to pack my suitcase and trot off to my old hometown of Schenectady, N. Y., along with Frances Adams, our Easy consultant. Frances left Wyckoff's to pay a visit to Wallace's in Schenectady, a friendly family store very much like our own. She did take a few telephone numbers and promised to call some of my friends there, however, just to say "hello" in lieu of the letters I always neglect to write.

... Make your own jewels of petit point! That's a fashion hint from Amy Ellenberger's art goods department, where there are packets containing earrings and brooch, to be embroidered. The center flowers are already worked, and only the background must be filled in. Earrings are priced at 1.98; brooch at 1.29. There are also eye glasses cases at 2.98 and wallets at 3.50 to be completed. Fashion makes a pretty point of petit point—and it's just another of those delightful "do it yourself" fads.

... Olivia Dreher, secretary of the Pocono Mountains Art Group, drops by to ask about radio time in behalf of the open-air art shows on Friday and Saturday, July 5th and 6th, and August 16 and 17, in Court House Square. Begin saving your pennies for these two big events, for it's possible to pick up some truly beautiful paintings by Monroe County's most gifted artists for only a fraction of their worth. ... Betty Calvin, returning from New York, tells me the fall styles in foundation garments are really something—delicately and lovelier than ever before. She is particularly enthusiastic about Image of Youth—a name we advertise very little for it is so well known it actually sells itself. This particular manufacturer, she tells me, is now making a corsetette for the larger woman with the bra in D cup size. This all-in-one garment is of nylon elastic with lace cups, and retails at only 16.50. We haven't them in stock right this minute, but Betty can—and will gladly—special order them for her customers. ... When Bill Wells visited the Wyckoff Shopper radio program the other morning, he expressed his opinion as to the Chanel look, which is going to be the next big thing on the fashion front. Bill doesn't like it—but he does admit that women apparently do, for it is already being seen on the sidewalks of New York, and our own fashion departments have placed orders. What is it exactly? Well, it's the long torso in a new version of the old middy blouse, as far as I can gather, and we'll see it not only on women and girls, but on children. Thelma Gordon, Bill, and Helen Levy were discussing it Saturday in our children's department, and there were both pro and con opinions. Thelma and Helen seemed to think it is lovely on the right type person—Bill is still holding out for something less extreme. It will be interesting to watch the reaction of our customers once the merchandise arrives. I'll warn Bill in advance, however—ANYONE who says women dress to please men is dead wrong. Women, in my opinion, dress to please themselves and to keep abreast—if not ahead—of other women. How many readers are honest enough to agree with me?—let's count hands!

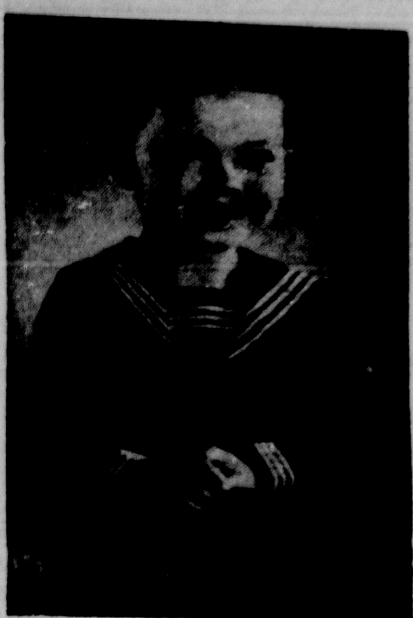

... I'm not sure whether they are meant to be used as wall plaques or trays, but our gift department has Moses, with the ten commandments, and Aaron, in that impressive Iranian copper, priced at 15.00 each. Incidentally, no gift department that I know could hold a candle to ours—not without having the candle burned at both ends, that is. You see, our gift department has gone in for matches, of all sizes, from everywhere. Not only do we have four packets of American-made safety matches packed together in purse-size lucite boxes at 25c—we have matches from Denmark that are a foot long for lighting a fire; shorter matches for the kitchen stove, and beautiful folders of party matches lavishly decorated with tiny seashells and sequins. If it's a match you want, bud, you'll find it in our match-stocking but MATCHLESS gift department. ... Maybe it's a scoop, but the grapevine in our store was abuzz the other afternoon with the news that Joe Whalen, WYPO's station manager, is about to become a bridegroom in August. Joe himself verified the rumor, so we congratulate him and wish the very best of happiness to the very lucky girl. Ask HIM her name—who am I to tell secrets?

Surprise Baby Shower Held For Mrs. Jeaneen Griffin

Mrs. Jeaneen Griffin was honored by a surprise baby shower on Sunday, June 2. The party was held at the home of Mrs. Grace Griffin, Stroudsburg, with Mrs. Grace Griffin as hostess.

A pink and blue bassinet held the many gifts. It was covered with a pink umbrella decorated with tiny babies and rosebuds. A green sprinkling can, suspended from the ceiling showered artificial rain on the umbrella.

The table was decorated to match the gift center, with an umbrella cake, a sprinkling can cake and a flower box cake with pink and blue roses with babies in the centers.

Refreshments were served to the following guests: Mrs. Mary Hagerty, Mrs. Cecile Hagerty, Mrs. Joan Perfeetti, Mrs. Gloria Choy, Miss Bette Bender, Miss Virginia Griffin, Miss Gladys Woltjen, Mrs. Olive Werkheiser, Mrs. Emma Dreher, Mrs. Mary Selwood, Mrs. Flory Schoonover, Mrs. Grace Griffin and Mrs. Jeaneen Griffin.

Sending gifts but unable to attend were: Mrs. Mary Schneider, Mrs. Shirley Hagerty, Mrs. Gloria Hagerty, Mrs. Della Stoeckel Jr., Miss Marigoye Selwood, Miss Sandra Selwood, Miss Ann Selwood, Mrs. Annie Edinger, Miss Margaret Edinger and Mrs. Frances Remy.

Surprise Stork Shower Held

A surprise baby shower was held for Mrs. Mildred Tenna Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Gloria Smith, 336 East Brown St., East Stroudsburg.

Gifts were placed around a large stork from which were hung green streamers.

Guests were: Mrs. James E. Shafer, Mrs. Gertrude Gilliland, Mrs. Evelyn Slider, Miss Helen Jollos, Mrs. Joseph Jollos, Mrs. Beatrice Cook, Mrs. Anne LaBar, Mrs. James A. Reed, Mrs. Mildred Zukowski, Mrs. Marian Zukowski, Mrs. Joseph Puzio, and Mrs. Stanley E. Singer.

Those sending gifts but unable to attend were: Leona DeHaven, Mrs. Walter McClelland and Mrs. Larry Schoenerberger.

Berean Class See Slides Of Japan

Bartonville — Vice-president Mrs. Elmer Marsh presided when the Berean Class of St. John's Lutheran Sunday School met at the parish house on Friday night, June 7.

The meeting opened with a devotional period. Hymns were sung and Elmer Marsh read the Scripture lesson. Rev. Robert Zuch told of his missionary work in Japan and showed slides illustrating his talk.

The class decided to proceed with the project of painting the interior of the parish house.

Announcement was made that the church council had accepted the memorial cabinet and that it would be placed in the church vestibule in the near future.

Plans were made for the next meeting of the group to be held on Friday night, July 5. Hosts will be Joseph Starnier and Elmer Marsh. Mrs. Archie Ace was appointed to read the Bible lesson.

Birthday greetings were extended to Mrs. Sally Harps who would celebrate her birthday on June 8 and to Mrs. Elmer Marsh whose birthday is on June 9.

Refreshments featuring ice cream and cake were served. Table decorations were in shades of rose with a peony centerpiece.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Marsh, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Dunbar, Mrs. Richard Metzgar, Mrs. Sally Harps, Mrs. Archie Ace, Mrs. Thomas G. Hawkes, Mrs. Daisy Allegor, Rev. Robert Zuch and Joseph Starnier.

Flower Show Today

The Bushkill Garden Club will hold a flower show this afternoon at 2 p.m. Their guests will be members of the Milford Garden Club. Dr. Lester of Stroudsburg will be the speaker.

If you can get old-fashioned leaf lard you'll find that, combined with butter, it makes excellent pastry. The leaf fat from which it is made is rendered in a kettle at a low temperature.

Beckers Have Triple Celebration

Both Ellen Becker celebrated her first birthday with a family party on June 8. Her sister, Karen Sue was honored on her fourth birthday with a party with many of her little friends on June 11.

Their parents, Mr. and Mrs. James W. Becker of Media, Pa., will celebrate their sixth wedding anniversary on June 16. They were married by Rev. Harold C. Eaton of the East Stroudsburg Methodist Church.

The children's paternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Earl F. Becker of Bangor, Pa., and their maternal grandmother is Mrs. Bessie J. Gagnon of East Stroudsburg whom they will be visiting soon.

Strawberry Festival Is Planned

Delaware Water Gap—The last meeting for the season was held by the Presbyterian Church Auxiliary at the home of Mrs. Harry Buzzard, Tuesday night. Mrs. Francis Drake presided and Mrs. C. B. Rosenkrans led the devotional period; reading verses in Romans, an article from "Streams in the Desert," and "Club Collect" by Mary Stewart.

Mrs. Wm. Glebe reported for the flower and gift committee. Mrs. Russell Buzzard and Mrs. Robert Carlton were appointed church flower committee for June. Mrs. Clifford Hauser gave the report of Mrs. Neil Lehto as to the package sent to a family in Hungary and showed photos received from the family.

It was decided to continue the money-raising projects during the summer. A committee was appointed to arrange for a strawberry festival; Mrs. Neil Lehto, Mrs. C. B. Rosenkrans, Mrs. Luther Markin, Mrs. Guyton Kemper, Mrs. Clifford Hauser, Mrs. Harry Buzzard. For the July bake sale, Mrs. H. J. LaBar was appointed chairman with her committee Mrs. George Hauser, Mrs. Luther Markin, Mrs. C. B. Rosenkrans. The August project committee is Mrs. Guyton Kemper, Mrs. Geo. Hauser, Mrs. C. B. Rosenkrans, Mrs. Clifford Hauser. It was decided to have the September meeting an all day meeting as a Retreat for devotions. Each member is to bring a covered dish for the luncheon and the day will be spent at the Saylorsburg bungalow of Rev. and Mrs. Luther Markin.

Mrs. Francis Drake reported for the recently organized Christian Education Committee that it had been decided to renew the church suppers holding six a year and starting in the Fall. Tentative plans were made for a welcome home reception in July for Rev. and Mrs. N. E. Koehler on their return from Japan.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Buzzard assisted by Mrs. Russell Buzzard.

H-L-H, Wyckoff-Sears Win Games

4-2 Victory Boosts H-L-H To Second

A FINE pitching performance by Metzgar drove the Heller-Lloyd-Howell nine into a second-place tie with the National Bank team as they edged the Bankers 4-2 yesterday in an East Stroudsburg Little League encounter.

Both teams are tied at 3-2, one-half a game behind league-leading Methodist Church.

Both teams tallied lone markers in the first, but HLH scored single runs in the second and fourth to lead 3-1. The Bankers pulled it to 3-2 in the fifth, but when HLH counted in the bottom of the fifth with the insurance run, that was the end of the scoring.

Metzgar scattered but four hits over the six frames, permitting another seven to float about the basepaths via walks. He fanned eleven. Lee gave up eight hits and six walks to go with his ten K's.

This afternoon sees the leading Methodist nine try to extend its lead to a full game as it takes on winless Cramer Lumber at the East Stroudsburg Little League park.

Tigers Topple Orioles, 4-2 With Three In First Inning

DETROIT, June 12 (AP)—The Detroit Tigers blasted Art Ceccarelli for three runs—two of them on J. W. Porter's upper deck home run—in the first inning and made them stand up for a 4-2 triumph today over the Baltimore Orioles.

Klu Taken Off Disabled List

PITTSBURGH, June 12 (AP)—Ted Kluszewski, the man of mighty muscles and a slipped disc, was taken off the disabled list today in the hope that his steadiness and home run bat might lift the wavering Cincinnati Redlegs back into winning ways.

The club needs Klu badly. Cincinnati had lost 7 of the last 10 games before playing Pittsburgh tonight, and had a measly .180 batting average over that span.

Sale
To stay under the 25-player limit, General Manager Gabe Paul sold outfielder Art Schult to Washington in the American League. Paul said he got considerably more for Schult than the $10,000 waiver price.

Kluszewski will be worked into regular playing at first base gradually, Manager Birdie Tebbetts indicated, although further defeats might alter that decision. Whenever a pinch hitter is needed, he will be called.

The big fellow, since his backside miseries began in spring training a year ago, has been examined by many doctors. The last one told him a month ago to swing at the ball as hard as he wished—that he could not hurt himself doing so. He also advised against an operation, but told Klu to do a lot of swimming and do "bumps" and "grinds" like the burlesque gals.

Klu said he had followed the directions the last month but hardly thought he had acquired the technique of the entertainers.

Stroud Juniors Seek Games

STROUDS baseball club was granted use of Gordon Giffels field under the lights during this season last night by Stroud Union School Board.

The club has traditionally played its season's games at Gordon Giffels Field. Permission was granted unanimously by the board.

Middlecoff Picks Ford, But Hogan, Snead Ready

By WILL GRIMSLEY
TOLEDO, Ohio, June 12 (AP)—Dr. Cary Middlecoff, a fidgety Memphis dentist who can't find his old-time urge, opens defense of his National OOpen Golf championship tomorrow as a forgotten outsider in a field of the game's greatest stars.

The tank doctor, in a pronounced slump, picks Masters champion Doug Ford as the man most likely to snatch his crown. But around rain-swept Inverness two old and familiar names rang out loudest of all: Ben Hogan and Sam Snead.

Hungry
Hogan, 44, lean and fit and apparently hungry for a fifth Open championship which eluded even the immortal Bob Jones, is the sentimental favorite of the fans and practical choice of the hardened pros, who still fear "The Little Man."

Snead, 45, putting Inverness' glassy greens as if his blade were equipped with radar, has his unusual legion of supporters who contend—probably correctly—that there's never been a greater hitter of the ball.

Sam, who has blown a half dozen opens and been runner-up in four, plays the Inverness Club course as if he owns it, whacking out of the rough when his tee shots wander and making the course's 6,919 yards look half the length.

Tigers Topple Orioles, 4-2 With Three In First Inning

Lanky Jim Bunning spaced six hits and registered his fifth consecutive victory and his sixth in seven decisions. The only damaging blow off the big righthander were Bob Nieman's sixth home run leading off in the second inning and Bob Boyd's second leading off in the sixth.

Single
Charlie Maxwell singled with one out in the first and came all the way home when Al Kaline's blooper fell into short right field for a double. Porter followed with a drive into the upper left field seats.

Kaline's second double, leading off the sixth, started the final Detroit run. He came home on catcher Red Wilson's two-out double to center.

Beat Penn-Stroud 17-1, Move Into Fourth Place

A THUMPING 17-1 loss at the hands of fourth-place Wyckoff-Sears dropped Penn-Stroud out of undisputed possession of second in Stroudsburg Little League.

Frantz whitewashed the Department Store nine for five innings until he gave up the lone tally in the last of the sixth. He held them to a miserly two hits over the game, fanning 14 while passing but three.

L-M Triumphs, Ties For Lead With Ronson

AN EXTRA-INNING victory over winless Coates Box pushed Line Material into a first-place tie with Ronson in an Industrial League Softball game yesterday.

Tied 13-all after regulation seven innings, L-M blasted six across in the top of the eighth to win 19-13 in a game which saw the pitchers wish that they hadn't bothered.

It was a game which saw the lead shift back and forth, as L-M scored a pair in the top of the first and Coates counting a trio in each of the first and second to lead 6-2. This lead did not hold up as L-M tallied six in the top of the third; Coates again lashed into the lead with a quartette in the last of the third, leading 10-8.

L-M is now 4-1 on the year, tied with Ronson for first.

Stulgaitis Resigns As Grid Mentor

JERRY Stulgaitis has resigned as football coach in junior high school of the Stroud Union system. Last night the board accepted his resignation from that specific post. Named assistant football coach and designated to handle the duties which formerly fell to Stulgaitis was Wilmont Smith of the school system faculty.

Stulgaitis continues as baseball coach in the high school and as a member of the school faculty.

Smith is a new faculty member who was graduated this Spring from East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. He was active in athletic council work and as an athlete on college teams during his school career.

'Say Hey!' Speaks Up, Giants Edge Cubs, 4-3

NEW YORK, June 12 (AP)—Willie Mays did it almost all by himself today, accounting for all New York Giant runs in a 4-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs. After his 11th homer with two men on tied the score in the sixth, Mays walked, moved to second on a force play, stole third and raced home on catcher Cal Neuman's wild throw in the last of the ninth.

Red Schoendienst opened the ninth with a single and Mays walked. Trying to sacrifice, Ossie

Sports Trail - -

By Whitney Martin

NEW YORK, June 12 (P)—Joe DiMaggio once authored a book something about being lucky to be a Yankee, and recent developments indicate he wasn't fooling. If it wasn't luck when Hank Bauer tried to steal second with the bases loaded at Detroit, with the mental masterpiece ending up with all hands safe and the winning run scoring, we aren't sure just what you would call it.

Which brings to mind that the Yankees currently are engaged in a series with the Chicago White Sox which very well could determine whether the New York club is going on to win the pennant, as per habit, or this is the year they confound the experts by not winning. Not that the experts aren't a confounded bunch under any circumstances.

Cold Facts
The cold fact appears to be the Yankees have been an overrated ball club since the first day of spring training. They just seemed to have too much of everything, an abundance of plenty, you might say.

They had two or three good men for every position, and Casey Stengel could pick a line-up blindfolded which could win the pennant in a breeze. In fact, sometimes you get the idea that is the way he is picking his line-up, but whether it is going to win in a breeze is extremely questionable.

It may be the Yankees had enough men for two or three good major league teams, but not enough for one championship team. The very fact Stengel has been shifting his line-up continually may indicate a doubt in his own mind as to just which men belong in there.

The really great teams of the past had one line-up, and barring injury necessitating a substitution the line-up was in there day after day until the fans could name the batting order in their sleep. The White Sox have been going along with pretty much the same line-up this year, and they're still leading the league.

Certainities
You might say there are only three Yankees who are sure of starting every day if they are healthy — Mickey Mantle, Yogi Berra and Gil McDougald. Maybe we should make that two, as even before his injury Berra was given a rest because he wasn't hitting.

In fact, Yogi is hitting only about .225 now, indicating his slump may become like Stan Musial's hitting, in reverse. As one of Musial's teammates put it: "Stan is just on a hitting streak — a 16-year hitting streak."

What may be taken as a bad omen for the New York club is that, with the exception of Kansas City, it has been having trouble with the lower case clubs. It has won all six with the Athletics, but to date is even stephen with both Baltimore and Washington, with four victories and four losses with each club.

Contenders In Open Look To Weatherman

By WILL GRIMSLEY

TOLEDO, Ohio, June 11 (P)—National Open golf contenders kept an anxious ear tuned to the weather forecasts today after a blustery rain storm washed out morning practice at the Inverness Club.

Oldsters recalled how a violent gale, called the worst storm in the history of the tournament, swept the course during the final round in 1920 and robbed Britain's 50-year-old Harry Vardon of a title which went to his fellow countryman, pipe-smoking Ted Ray. "Storms like that or even clearing and high winds could turn this thing into a wide-open free-for-all," commented former champion Julius Boros of Southern Pines, N.C. while golfers chewed their nails. The forecast is for more showers tomorrow and clearing Thursday, the day of the tournament opening, but there was no assurance that the skies might not bust a few more seams before Saturday's double round windup.

Sun May Hammer

Masters champion Doug Ford, the year's leading money winner and with veterans Ben Hogan and Sam Snead a prime favorite for the $7,200 first money, said a siege of bright sunshine and course-drying wind might prove as disastrous as heavy rains.

"If these greens were to dry off they would be almost impossible to putt properly," Ford added. "They're like glass already. If they get any harder they won't hold a pitch and we'll be worrying about four-putting instead of three putting."

As the tournament drew near its start, the theory was growing that this 57th championship will be a "putter's tournament," decided on the undulating carpets with the marble-like surfaces.

Most of the golfers are doing a lot of last-minute doctoring on their putting sticks. Dr. Cary Middlecoff, the defending champion, removed the heavy lead inlays from his mallet head putter. Others were shifting from the heavier mallet head sticks to lighter blades. Snead has even been practicing putting with his driver.

Industries Big Help To Baseball

EDITOR'S NOTE—This is the second of two articles to be written on the history of the Babe Ruth League in Monroe County. Both articles to be written by Leonard Randolph, will appear in The Daily Record this week.

By Leonard Randolph
WHEN Doug Schoonover made his first "contact" with industry in an attempt to get backing for a "Little Bigger League"—now known as "Babe Ruth League"—the telephone call went to John Kingsley, head of International Boiler Works.

Schoonover approached the idea of talking with Kingsley with some confusion. He has never considered himself a "salesman" or a "talker."

Over the telephone it seemed easy enough. Schoonover outlined to Kingsley the basic purpose of the new league. Kingsley listened patiently then suggested that Schoonover drop in at IBW for a longer talk.

A few minutes later Schoonover was ushered into a conference room at IBW. When he saw the group of officials gathered in the room, he had a second, stronger sinking sensation at the pit of his stomach. There was a whole bunch of them there, he recalls now. I thought to myself: These guys are gonna make it tough to explain.

As it turned out, Schoonover's worries had no foundation whatsoever. Kingsley and the other Boiler Works officials had "excellent questions to ask," but they were entirely sympathetic and, in the end, the company agreed wholeheartedly to sponsor a team and back the effort to form a league.

By the time that day had ended, Schoonover had industrial sponsors for all four teams he needed to start the league. Fast approval came from Gil Smrz of Line Material who had also been interested in Little League and had helped greatly in keeping that league going. Kenneth Barthold from Monroe Silk and H. G. Sanborn Jr. of Worthington Mower.

Big Names Battle In Tournament

POCONO SLATE: Bowling tournament continues to attract the big names among the Ten-Pin Toppers as Buzz Fazio and Steve Nagy lead the weekend's assault on the leaders in the scratch division.

The weekend play begins today at 10 p.m. with Jimmy Alba and his Cleveland, Ohio, group rolling. Tomorrow night sees fellow Clevelanders Paul Hunady paste the pins as will Scranton's Jerry Freidlin and Leroy Spencer.

Big Guns
After the handicap bowlers wind up on Saturday afternoon, the big guns from Detroit—Nagy, Fazio, and Harry Smith—begin to snipe at the Budweiser Blasters, beginning at 10 p.m.

Fazio is known for his theatrics on the foul-line almost as well as for his scoring. Nagy is another TV star, having competed against such performers as Lou Campi and Don Carter, the latter holding third place in the scratch division. Sunday afternoon will see several local bowlers assault the alleys.

Less than 24 hours later the solid foundation for a Babe Ruth League had been laid. It was easy to get the boys for the teams. A baseball "school" was held for all players. Tryouts turned out to be highly successful. There seemed to be enough baseball talent for a half dozen leagues in the young set.

The league was started. That first year a local team played in the State playoff in Tamaqua. It was a fine team but it lost a "squeaker" in the finals. Local officials were still happy over the first season.

At the end of the Summer the Kiwanis Club of the Stroudsburg asked to be allowed to take over sponsorship of the league as a whole. An agreement was made. The leadership of the league also passed into other hands. From 1953-55 Eugene Martin, dean of men at East Stroudsburg State Teachers College, became general director of the league. Under his leadership—and that of Stroudsburg High School principal Alfred Munson last year—Babe Ruth baseball continued to progress in Monroe County. Martin has since gone on to become District Commissioner of Babe Ruth ball. In 1954 the league became officially "Babe Ruth League," the name it has held ever since.

One of the main factors in the constant success of the league has been the loyalty of men who were the original managers of teams in the league. Nearly all the old managers are still there—men like Warren "Mag" Loney, Lou Leffler, John Schoonover, Tom Bonser, Bill Reaser and Harold Reaser (who will umpire this year).

In 1956 Schoonover came back to Monroe County to teach in the East Stroudsburg schools. He also returned to Babe Ruth ball as assistant manager of the Stroudsburg Engine Works team, working with Loney. During mid-season Schoonover was asked by Martin to act as commissioner of the local league. He agreed.

This Spring the Kiwanis Club—which until then had held the supervisory post through its presidency—suggested that the league should have its own separate slate of officers. Schoonover was named president, Lou Leffler became vice president and Ed Krawitz was elected secretary-treasurer.

One of the league's most recent actions has been the formation of The Babe Ruth Mothers. Their primary purpose is to find ways in which to support the league through raising funds (as they are now doing) and other activities.

Babe Ruth baseball in Monroe County, by its specialized goals, serves in a manner which no other community organization can boast. It is set aside specifically for boys in the age group between 13 and 15.

League by-laws state that a boy is eligible to play Babe Ruth baseball providing he will not be 16 years old before Sept. 1 of year in which he is playing.

This year the league will be using three major area fields: Gordon Giffels in Stroudsburg, the East Stroudsburg Playground field and the Barrett school field. There are six teams in action and they will play a total of 45 games. Officials hope to have eight teams next year. They hope, also, to get teams started in other areas of the county.

Industries which sponsor teams still contribute between $50 and $75 per year to the operation and management of the teams. These funds are used to defray the normal costs of playing baseball.

Today, however, the league is faced with its first full-scale replacement need. Most of the equipment now in use has been acquired piecemeal along the way during the league's six-year history, or, worse still, is a part of the original supply when the league was formed.

The league needs just about everything you can mention: new bats, new baseballs, new uniforms. A voluntary collection is generally taken up at games—but this is not enough to cover the large-scale cost of equipment needs.

It is for this reason that the Babe Ruth Mothers—headed by Mrs. Frank Talasz, president, and Mrs. Sally Vlechnicki as chairman of the fund drive—is now making public appeals for funds on a door-to-door basis.

This is the first time in the league's history it has asked for public support, other than that it has received selflessly and voluntarily from local industries.

Out of the drive, league officials hope, will come better baseball, better training and—in the long run—a Babe Ruth League which will serve all of Monroe County and all sorts of programs in area schools.

This is the first Babe Ruth League Week ever held in the Stroudsburgs.

Gomez Carries Giants With Victory Over Every Rival In National League Flag Race

NEW YORK, June 12 (P)—In a year when attendance is dropping and the club is struggling deep in the second division, the New York Giants can find a ray of hope in the performance of Ruben Gomez.

When Gomez beat the Chicago Cubs Tuesday night, he completed his tour of the National League. Now he holds a decision over every other club in the league and has a fine 8-3 record as compared with last season's 7-17 performance. His eight victories are tops in the National League.

As the Giants have won only 22 games, Gomez' pitching feats can be readily appreciated. Especially in light of Johnny Antonelli's disappointing 3-6 record.

During the Leo Durocher regime at the Polo Grounds, the Puerto Rican was in and out of the doghouse. He said he could pitch only when the weather was hot and annoyed Durocher with his complaints.

Injury 6
The Giants didn't know how much to expect from Gomez when he reported this spring because he had been injured while playing the outfield in the Puerto Rican Winter League. However, he started with a rush and hasn't stopped yet.

What happened? "Steady work," Gomez said was the reason for his success. "I pitch regular, every fourth day. I can't sit around for nine or 10 days and be in shape."

Billy Rigney, Gomez' manager, has a slightly different idea.

"He used to rely only on his screwball," said Rigney. "The result was that all the batters would be waiting for it. Now he throws more fast balls and curves and has the batters guessing."

"Notice how many called third strikes he gets over? You know why? They're looking for the screwball and he crosses them up with the fast ball."

Ray Katt, who catches Gomez most of the time, has the same idea.

Girl Number One Hitter

GALT, Ont., June 12 (P)—A 10-year-old player with a batting average of .412 is setting the Galt Boys' Atom Baseball League on fire. The figure is impressive, especially as the batter is a girl, Jane Oliver.

Jane, who plays second base for the Senators, is the only girl on the roster of 30 teams in the Galt minor baseball organization. She joined the Senators when the manager of the team saw her snag a foul and invited her to join.

The league needs just about everything you can mention: new bats, new baseballs, new uniforms. A voluntary collection is generally taken up at games—but this is not enough to cover the large-scale cost of equipment needs.

Television Show Adds To Sports Picture At Shawnee

BUSY TELEVISION and advertising personalities are combining business and recreation at the Shawnee Inn.

"The Golf Capital of the East" is hosting many CBS executives and admen who are teeing off as they begin the preliminary negotiations for the Fred Waring morning telecasts.

Although rehearsals will not begin until mid-July—the first telecast is scheduled for July 22—the behind-the-scenes men are already in full swing, both with the details and golf clubs.

Preparations are also underway for the slam-bang Fourth of July schedule, which will feature Golf and Swimming meets, fireworks, barbecues, and children's games.

The swimming tourney is one of national interest and import, involving, as it does, competitors from the New Jersey-Pennsylvania, District of Columbia, and Middle Atlantic areas. It is the ninth annual meet for these teams held at Shawnee.

"The Yankee Doodle Dandy" golf tournament will be held on the championship course.

Col. Pundak To Speak At UJA Dinner

A HIGH Israeli Army official will speak at the kickoff dinner of the 1957 Monroe County campaign for the United Jewish Appeal.

Col. Itzhak Pundak, commander of the Israeli Armored Forces from 1953 until August, 1956, will speak at a dinner to be held at 6:30 p.m., Wednesday, June 19 at Davidukes in Marshalls Creek.

Local campaign chairman Sam Block said Monroe County's 1957 UJA goal will be $10,000. Half will go for the regular UJA causes, while an equal amount will be contributed to the $100-million Emergency Rescue Fund to aid Jews from such areas as Hungary, Egypt and North Africa.

Born in 1913, Col. Pundak immigrated to Israel in 1932. He has been active in the Haganah since 1933, and has been an active Haganah officer since 1939.

In 1948, during Israel's War of Independence, Col. Pundak was promoted to battalion commander. A short time later, he was elevated to brigade commander.

Col. Pundak served as Nachal commander between 1950-52, after which he attended a high military armored course in France. He was named commander of the Armored Forces in 1953.

Serving on the local dinner committee are Leon Koster, Mrs. Dolores Cohen, and Mrs. Fritzie Green.

Fifty-five persons attended a reception held at the Wesley Chapel social hall recently. The party was in honor of Rev. and Mrs. Leroy Bernard, welcoming them back to the Tannersville Methodist Church for another year. A pot luck supper was served. Sponsors of the reception were the members of the Women's Society of Christian Service at Wesley Chapel.

Local folks celebrating birthdays this week include Mrs. Stewart White, on June 1; Russell Bond, on June 2; Leroy Cyphers, on June 3, and Mrs. James N. Canfield, Jr., on June 5.

Meeting date for the Junior Crusaders of St. John's Lutheran Sunday School has been changed from June 21 to June 20. All children of the community are invited to attend. Hostesses will be Mrs. Earl Learn and Mrs. Graydon Frailley.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Neithard and daughters, and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Nessler, of Brooklyn, N. Y., spent the weekend at their Bartonsville cottage.

Mrs. Rudy Harvatin, of Forest City, spent several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Metzgar.

Association Plans To Stock Trout

SAYLORSBURG — Saylor's Lake Fishing Assn. has made plans to again stock 1,000 brown and rainbow trout at 3 p.m. Saturday. It was announced last night by Charles R. Dewalt, president.

The lake will be closed to fishing until 5 a.m. Sunday, Dewalt said. However, members are invited to participate in the stocking program, and boats can be reserved in advance.

Dewalt said bass will be stocked later this month.

Statement

"Saylor's Lake has been undergoing treatment for weed control," he continued, "and results have been most satisfactory."

"The association, in line with its charter to further fishing and swimming conditions at the lake, has purchased an aquatic skin diving outfit," he said. "Personnel are being trained in methods of operation in case of emergency."

The next meeting of the association will be held Sunday, June 30. Nominations for officers will be held and all members are urged to attend.

Trade Talks Slated

CAIRO, June 12 (AP)—Egypt has scheduled talks with Red Czechoslovakia in August to extend their trade pact for three years. Official statistics show Egypt exported $14,286,410 in goods, mostly cotton, to Czechoslovakia and imported $4,115,580 in goods in the first four months of this year.

WEEK-END guests of Mr. and Mrs. Orlan Reish were Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Ream of Jersey Shore and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haller. Sunday callers were Mrs. Vesta Miller and Mrs. Rose Bloemhagen of Newton.

Mrs. Fred Dennis called on her father, Horace Brewer on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reish celebrated their 16th wedding anniversary on June 7.

Folks of the Cherry Valley Grange are still talking about the late hour they arrived home from a trip to Pike County after their bus broke down. Several members kept the others entertained.

Two other school picnics and hay rides were held at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Reish. They were the fifth grade, Mrs. Marlin Seifass, teacher, and the first grade, Mrs. Kern, teacher. Rev. Clyde Levergood is going to Canada with Ernest Wyckoff and a group of Boy Scouts.

Line Material Plant Wins Safety Award

WITH A no-lose-time accident record for the fifth year in a row, the East Stroudsburg Line Materials Industries plant won the inter-plant safety contest for 1956 and possession of the Line Material traveling safety plaque, together with individual awards for each local employee.

This achievement marked the 15th safety award received by the local plant since October 1951.

These include: Five certificates of honor from the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in recognition of a perfect safety record; three National Safety Council awards as winners in the Light Machinery Division; National Safety Council "Award of Merit" for the operation of 1,534,055 man hours without a disabling injury for the period Oct. 2, 1951 to Dec. 31, 1954; Citation from the American Mutual Liability Insurance Co. for working 680,458 man hours over a continuous period of 18 months without a lost-time accident; and five Line Material Safety Contest first place awards.

As of May 30, 1957, the local plant has worked 68 months and 2,753,646 man hours without a lost-time accident.

JACK Bryfogle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bryfogle, graduated from Smithfield Consolidated School Wednesday night, as did Shirley Hilliard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Hilliard. They will enter East Stroudsburg High School next fall. Susie Metzgar, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Metzgar, also will attend the East Stroudsburg school as this year is the last that there will be an eighth grade at Smithfield and the seventh graders this year and hereafter will graduate to East Stroudsburg school.

Paul Meixell, while preparing to do some concreting and tearing away some old concrete work at his home, ran an iron spike through his arm above the elbow. The spike penetrated a muscle. He is recovering from the painful injury.

George "Chipper" Kulp has recovered from the effects of a dog bite he received last week. He was playing with another boy whose evidently thought their play a menace to his master; for suddenly he sank his teeth in Chipper's back just below the shoulder.

Mrs. Maurice Metzgar, Mrs. Paul Meixell, Mrs. Yvonne Lambert Smith, Mrs. Ann Gilmore Schorling and Mrs. Jean Barnes Gearhardt are among those employed at the Ronson plant.

Mrs. William Glebe spent Wednesday with Mrs. H. W. Brodhead of Stroudsburg. Mrs. Brodhead returned Sunday from a week spent with friends in Hamilton, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Metzgar have been kept busy with school graduation activities. Their son Marshall Metzgar graduated from East Stroudsburg High Thursday night; and, their son Allen Metzgar from Smithfield, Wednesday night.

Mrs. Mary Choremam of Blackwood, N. J., is a guest this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Lightner.

Delbert Davis and Harold Lightner spent a day mowing and cleaning up Memorial Park, on Cherry Valley Road, getting it ready for summer. They ask for volunteer helpers. There are a number of expenses, such as insurance, connected with maintenance of the park. Any who will contribute are asked to leave their gift at Wi-berg's store. The park committee report that much vandalism has taken place at the park; such as breaking down the fireplace chimney, tearing loose the sink. Though given clues to those who did these depredations, they will not prosecute; but warn that any further damages will be severely punished.

Local Soldier Transferred To West Point

FORT EUSTIS, VA., June 12—Pvt. Richard W. Reimel, son of J. Stanley Reimel, Route 2, Stroudsburg, Pa., left Fort Eustis, Va., last week with the 557th Transportation Co. for temporary duty at the U. S. Military Academy, West Point.

Reimel will assist in the support of the academy's Summer cadet training program.

Mechanic

Reimel is a mechanic in the company. He entered the Army in September 1956 and received basic training at Fort Dix, N. J.

Reimel is a 1953 graduate of Stroudsburg High School.

THIRD-DEGREE—Thirteen of the 15 members of the Father Butler Council Knights of Columbus who received the Third-Degree in Scranton last Sunday are pictured above. The degree was exemplified at the Scranton Knights of Columbus Council Hall.

Father Butler Knights Earn Third-Degree

FIFTEEN local members of the Father Butler Council Knights of Columbus, of the Stroudsburgs, all second-degree members, were initiated into the Third-Degree of the organization, at an exemplification of the Degree on Sunday afternoon.

The degree was exemplified at the Scranton Knights of Columbus Council Hall. Members of the degree-team were from the Hazleton area.

The Third-Degree class was composed of candidates from eight local area Councils.

State Secretary, Alfred LaVie, Plymouth, spoke to the new Third-Degree members on the importance of Columbianism to the individual, to the country and to the church.

Rev. Joseph J. Ferrese, Dunmore, gave the charge to the new candidates and other Third and Fourth Degree members present in the audience. He summed up in his talk the importance of every member becoming conscious of the basic aims of the Knights of Columbus and living accordingly every day of their lives, a good, true and full Christian life.

Members of the class were: John Sweeney, Frank Owens, Salvatore Miraglia, John McCole, John Brent, Harry Bush, Theodore Stevens, James Dolan, Allan Yoch, Alvin Kresge, Edward McGrath, Robert Reidmiller, William Wickham, Harrison Place and Lincoln Kutscher.

At night the candidates and other members present were invited to a Third Degree reception put on by the Dunmore Council.

Approximately 30 local Knights were in attendance at the Degree, including the candidates.

For those second-degree members who were unable to make the trip to Scranton Sunday, they are reminded that a third degree will be exemplified again in Easton on Sunday.

Swiftwater Soldier Ends Basic Course

FORT KNOX, Ky., June 12—Army Pvt. Robert J. Gearhart, son of Mrs. Mary E. Gearhart, Swiftwater, Pa., completed eight weeks of basic combat training last week under the Reserve Forces Act program at Fort Knox, Ky.

Men volunteering for the six-month tour of active duty are permitted to finish their military service in local Army Reserve or National Guard units.

Leader Views Development

HARRISBURG, June 12 (P)—Gov. Leader declared tonight that the state government has reached a stage of development where it appreciates the need for consultation on problems of administration.

"Now we have arrived at the state of administrative maturity where we feel the need to share our experiences and our thinking on the more fundamental problems and concepts of administration," the governor said.

Litts Speaks To Pocono Graduates

TANNERSVILLE—Pocono High School graduates received diplomas Tuesday night at commencement exercises in the school auditorium.

The program opened with a procession by the school band. Invocation was given by Rev. Leroy Bernard, Tannersville Methodist Church and the benediction was given by Rev. Robert Galligan, Pocono Catholic Mission.

Student addresses were given by Beverly Ann Casella, valedictorian and Anna Marie Ruehlman, salutatorian. John C. Litts, county superintendent of schools, was the guest speaker.

Musical selections were offered by the girls' sextette (Jean Hofford, Joan Spragle, Joan Werkheiser, Beverly Peechatka, Ruth Rustine and Nancy Williams) which was heard in "Graduation Day"; Elizabeth Frailey, soprano soloist, in "You'll Never Walk Alone" and the "Alma Mater" by the class of 1957.

The class gift was presented by Miss Frailey, who was president of the graduating group. Graduates were: Dorothy Anita Besecker, Robert Frederick Bryson, Patricia Jane Butz, Beverly Ann Casella, Doris Marie Doll, Elizabeth Alta Frailey, Geraldine JoAnn Hall, Harold Robert Hardenstine, James Frederick Motts, Marion Elaine Muir, Daniel Ralph Paul, Burdett Bradley Peechatka, Walter Norman Peechatka, Anna Marie Ruehlman, Edward Anthony Salzer and Norbert Anthony Vishnesky.

Beer Consumption Up

LONDON, June 12 (P)—The world drank seven per cent more beer last year than in 1955, says the British Brewers' Society. It reports beer guzzling rose from 6 1/2 billion gallons to 7 billion gallons.

Former Eaton Aide To Visit United States

DURING the two months of Rev. and Mrs. Harold C. Eaton's stay in the village of Tajima, Japan, during the summer of 1955, it was their privilege to have the assistance and fellowship of Miss Kumiko Fukai.

Kumiko San acted as Mrs. Eaton's interpreter.

Her facile interpretation, her gracious manner, and her sincere Christian character long will be cherished in the memory of those with whom she was placed in contact, the Eatons revealed.

Travel

Miss Fukai, has gained a remarkable recognition. Under the auspices of the Friends' Special Works Commission she has been given an Unesco travel grant and will leave Japan on June 30 and will spend the summer at a series of conferences on international relationships in America.

Her nearest point in conferences will be at Pennell Hills at Wallingford, Pa. and while she is there, the Eatons anticipate the privilege of having her in their home and presenting her to the community.

France has a monument erected to the memory of Cpl. James B. Gresham, of Calhoun, Ky., and the first American soldier to be killed "facing the enemy" in World War One.

Three Monroe County Students Among 461 Obtaining Degrees At Lehigh University

THREE MONROE County students were among 461 to receive degrees at Lehigh University commencement exercises this week.

They were the following: Allan I. Bodsky, 17 N. Sixth St., Stroudsburg; Richard Grady Moore, 74 Lackawanna Ave., East Stroudsburg; and Leon John Snyder, Saylorsburg.

Bodsky received the bachelor of arts degree. He attended Blair Academy and served 16 months in Germany with the U. S. Army before attending Lehigh. He is a member of Alpha Phi Omega, service fraternity; played in the Lehigh Marching Band and took part in the Music Festival. He was vice president of his dormitory and a member of the Residence Hall Council committee on discipline. He is a member of the Ski Club, the National Ski Patrol and was on the staff of the campus newspaper, Engineering.

Moore received the degree of bachelor of science in mechanical engineering. He played in the band and took part in the Lehigh Music Festival. He is a member of the American Society of Mechanical Engineers.

Snyder also received the bachelor of science degree in mechanical engineering. He was a member of the Town Group at Lehigh and was active in other school affairs.

Legion Post To Elect New Officers

GEORGE N. KEMP American Legion Post will elect officers at today's regular monthly meeting at 8 p.m.

Commander Morohovch urges a large turnout for the meeting, as final plans for the carnival, to be held this month, will be reviewed.

After the business session a film will be shown on the highlights of all seven games of the 1956 World Series. The film will be shown through the courtesy of the American Legion Department of Pennsylvania.

Firemen Plan For Carnival

MOUNT POCONO—The Pocono Mountain Volunteer Fire Co. met with 35 members present at the fire hall. The president, Charles Brock presided.

The meeting was given over mostly to the planning of the annual carnival, to be held July 22 to 27. Chairmen and committees were appointed.

Kickoff Plans were made for a kickoff party to be held June 29, for all workers who will help at the carnival. This includes the women of the auxiliary.

Three new members were approved.

New 'Solar' Clock Invented

NEW YORK, June 12 (AP)—General Time Corp. said today it has developed a new "solar" clock which is operated by flight.

The clock requires no electric cord, is completely portable, and requires no winding or battery replacements.

WHY re-enlist in the small-car army?

READ THIS STARTLING FACT

5 out of 10 Smaller Cars wear a Pontiac Price Tag —yet none gives you Any of Pontiac's Advantages

PONTIAC GIVES YOU UP TO 8.9% MORE SOLID CAR PER DOLLAR!

Not one of the smaller cars can give you the heavy-duty construction, the road-hugging hof and solid security that surround you in every Pontiac. Yet Pontiac's the nimblest heavyweight you ever managed—and your Pontiac dealer can show you more than six dozen advanced-engineering reasons why! Pontiac has gone all out to make this genuine big car the best behaved beauty that you ever had the pleasure of boosing. You'll find Pontiac's exclusive Precision-Touch Controls make steering and braking the surest, easiest you've ever experienced! Park it, cruise it, try it in stop-and-go traffic... this is driving the smaller jobs can't duplicate.

PONTIAC GIVES YOU 4 TO 7 INCHES MORE WHEELBASE!

The small cars extend bumpers and fenders to look big—but Pontiac puts the extra length where it counts—between the wheels! Pontiac's longer stride brackets the bumps instead of riding on them. And this extra length shows up inside, too, in stretch-out space for six footers. Add to Pontiac's bonus in length its all-new suspension system and you have an exclusive Level-Line Ride no car at any price can surpass... and a built-in sense of direction and security that will spoil you for the smaller cars forever!

PONTIAC'S PERFORMANCE TOPS THE BEST THE SMALL CARS CAN OFFER—BY A WIDE MARGIN!

Not one of the smaller cars can measure up to Pontiac Performance. Whether you judge a power plant by engineering statistics or on-the-road performance, Pontiac's Strato-Streak V-8 stands head and shoulders above anything in the low-price field. Your Pontiac dealer will be happy to show you a complete facts-and-figures comparison—then an eye-opening test drive in traffic or out on the highway will supply all the heart-lifting proof you need that Pontiac has separated the men from the boys when it comes to performance!

—AND PONTIAC HAS ALWAYS BEEN FAMOUS AS ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP TRADE-INS!

Maybe it comes as a surprise to you that so much more car can be yours at the same price you've seen on the smaller cars. But there's the fact! And Pontiac is a wonderful investment, too! As you know, it has always commanded a top trade-in. So why not step out of the small-car class and into a Pontiac... there's nothing in your way. Your Pontiac dealer has the keys and an eye-opening offer waiting for you right now!

So why not look and feel like a million—instead of a million others?

NOW! If you want the ultimate in both economy and extraordinary performance, new Tri-Power Carburetor is available at extra cost on even the lowest priced Pontiac model! It's America's newest power advance and exclusively Pontiac's at so low a cost!
